OUR PROGRAM

Emmanuel Anglican College offers a private instrumental and vocal tuition program to promote students' academic and extra-curricular musical education as well as to provide an opportunity for beginners to enjoy music.

The College has a team of specialist tutors who teach music in one to one and small group formats. Music tutorials are scheduled so that, as much as possible, times work with the student's classroom timetable and minimise disruption.

All students learning an instrument are strongly encouraged, and expected, to be involved in music ensembles. This involves attendance at rehearsals which are timetabled out of class time, whether before school, at lunchtime or after school. Especially for students studying music as an elective in Years 9 to 12, ensemble rehearsal commitments have priority over all other voluntary activities.

Students at Emmanuel Anglican College have the opportunity to learn the following:

- Bass Guitar
- Drums
- Guitar
- Music Production
- Music Theory
- Piano
- Singing
- Song Writing
- Ukulele

Tutor services include:

- Music and/or vocal tutorials to individual students and small groups
- Preparation of students for solo and group performances for enjoyment and academic assessment

For enquiries regarding tuition on trumpet, trombone, flute, percussion, saxophone, clarinet and Euphonium/Baritone, please contact Mr Adam Holmes, Concert Band Coordinator via email aholmes@eac.nsw.edu.au

For all other enquiries and further information regarding the instrumental program at Emmanuel Anglican College, please contact: Mr Justin Cleverley, Teacher of Music - Primary/Secondary and Instrumental and Vocal Tutor Coordinator, by email to jcleverley@eac.nsw.edu.au, or by phone to 02 6681 5054.

Ms Sangeeta Lee Jones: Vocals, Piano, Guitar, Songwriting

Sangeeta Lee Jones has taught piano, singing, and songwriting for 20 years since graduating with Honours from a Bachelor of Contemporary Music at Southern Cross University. Sangeeta also teaches guitar with a focus on self-accompanying vocal performances. Sangeeta has taught many students at EAC, with her recent HSC student obtaining the highest mark category of a Band 6.

Both at EAC and in her private practice at Lennox Head, Sangeeta has guided many students to complete their Australian Music Examinations Board exams as well as mentoring students to explore music in their own way. Sangeeta has lectured extensively at the Northern Rivers Conservatorium and at the South Thames College in London.

Sangeeta is currently both directing and performing with the popular North Coast party band Glitterati Riot. Performing original compositions from her self titled album, Sangeeta has toured with her band throughout Australia, Greece and the United Kingdom. Sangeeta's confidence building teaching style caught the eye of the English National Opera (ENO) who appointed Sangeeta as presenter and vocal teacher for the ENO App which helps bring opera to new audiences.

A testimonial from one of Sangeeta's recent students speaks to Sangeeta's great skill for finding and bringing out her students' inner talents...

"I can't be happier to have found Sangeeta. Every week I look forward to her lessons, which are fun, dynamic and warm-hearted. Sangeeta has an amazing technical knowledge but is also equally intuitive. Sangeeta's lessons have encouraged me to explore music territories that I never thought myself capable of."

Ms Anna Honeychurch: Piano, Voice

With an Associate Degree of Music in Teaching and Performance (specialising in Jazz) and an Associate Diploma in Teaching through Trinity College of Music London, Northern Rivers based musician Anna Honeychurch teaches piano, keyboard, vocals and theory of music.

Anna has taught piano and singing for over 25 years.

Mr Thomas Cox: Drums, Guitar, Bass Guitar, Production, Composition

Born and raised in the UK, Tom developed a passion for music at a very young age. After being gifted a guitar by his grandmother aged seven, Tom taught himself how to play.

Raised on a steady diet of 70s, 80s, and 90s alternative, indie, punk, and progressive music, Tom created his own, unique style of playing that sits somewhere between and across all these genres.

He started drumming and playing bass at age 12, both of which he also taught himself. Tom has composed, written, toured, and performed in numerous bands in both the UK and Australia over the past 20+ years as well as releasing his own solo material. He has been teaching music since 2017 and has an organic approach to learning which nurtures a passion as well as a disciplined and dedicated practice ethic.

THE ENROLMENT PROCESS

To enrol in the private music lessons at Emmanuel Anglican College, please read, complete and submit the Enrolment Form. A separate form is required for each student.

Upon receipt, your enrolment will be reviewed by Mr Cleverley, Instrumental and Vocal Tutor Coordinator, and a tutor allocated. This process takes approximately one week.

Once allocated, the music tutor will contact you to introduce themselves and advise the date and time of the first lesson. Wherever possible, all lessons are given on a rotating timetable so that the lessons take place at a different time each week meaning students do not always miss out on the same normal class time.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr Justin Cleverley, Instrumental and Vocal Tutor Coordinator via email to jcleverley@eac.nsw.edu.au.
